

SCHOOL OF THEATRE

STAGE YOUR BEST FUTURE

WHY THEATRE?

In keeping with the NAFA spirit of creativity, exploration and resilience, the Faculty of Performing Arts, School of Theatre, continues the strong legacy of our founders, constantly challenging and supporting our students and staff to reach new frontiers in our practice. Through practice-led and industry-focused training, you will leave our halls with unparalleled aptitude, attitude and performing experience to take centre-stage in the fast-evolving performing arts landscape.

Gain comprehensive training in acting, content creation, and versatile performance, essential for both on-stage and off-stage roles, fostering mastery and adaptability in this multi-disciplinary, collaborative industry.

Explore various performance and non-performance roles, such as acting, directing, writing, or stage management, to discover your passion through diverse stagecraft, teaching, learning, electives, and industry projects.

Graduates are prepared to dive into professional theatre work and take the industry by storm, or choose to further their learning journey with a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Contemporary Chinese Theatres or a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Performance Making.
